

Hello Highlees,

Mrs Bennett and her children have been playing a geography board game called 'Who Knows Where?' and have been learning more about the world. They have looked on a globe at places they have been to and have been finding out about places they would like to visit in the future.

Challenge:

If you could go anywhere in the world, where would you like to visit and why?

